

CERTIFICATE OF ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

Please check one:

- ① I have certification from an external English test and have attached a copy (after reading the information below, please proceed to page 2 and disregard page 3).

A minimum TOEFL iBT score of 55 (equivalent to Band 3 on the new score scale) or an equivalent score from another English test (within 2 years before the date of the entrance examination) is required for application.

Please note that MEXT scholarship applicants are required to submit one of the official test scores that meets the minimum standards described in the notes below (TOEFL iBT 72, IELTS 5.5).

Notes:

Scores in each of the four skills of listening, reading, writing, and speaking are required to be equivalent to at least level B2 on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

- ② My native or official language is English (after reading the information below, please proceed to page 3 and disregard page 2).

Applicants who have completed five years or more of their higher education (at university or college) in English as their primary language of instruction are exempt from submitting an external English test score.

Notes:

Having learned English as a foreign language for five years or more does not satisfy the above exemption requirement.

If you selected option ① on the previous page, please attach a copy of your external English test results to this page.

(attach additional pages if necessary)

If you have selected option ② on page 1, you are required to submit this certificate.
