

Graduate School of Infectious Diseases Assessment Policy

December 25, 2018

(Purpose)

- (1) Based on the Hokkaido University Assessment Policy, the Graduate School of Infectious Diseases shall conduct educational assessment to reach the educational goals provided by the Diploma Policy.

(Implementation System)

- (2) The Dean shall be responsible for the educational assessment of the Graduate School of Infectious Diseases.
- (3) The educational assessment of the Graduate School of Infectious Diseases shall be conducted by the FD Committee of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, the Graduate School of Veterinary Medicine, the School of Veterinary Medicine and the Graduate School of Infectious Diseases.

(Implementation and Analysis)

- (4) The educational assessment of the Graduate School of Infectious Diseases shall be conducted using the assessment checklist separately provided.
- (5) Educational reform using the assessment results as a reference shall be made public proactively.
- (6) Concerning the handling of educational data, Hokkaido University's related rules and regulations shall be complied with to protect personal information.